IMPORTANT

TO THE

AFFLICTED!

Many years ago there was a good man who lived at one of the Italian Universities. One day a young man ran up to him with a face beaming with joy, and said that his greatest wish was fulfilled, his parents, having just given him permission to study the law. "So now I am coming to the Law-school of the University on account of its great fame; and I mean to spare no pains to get through my studies as well and quickly as possible." In this way he went on talking for a long time. When at last he came to a stop, the good man, who had been listening to him with great patience, said: "Well, and after you have got through your studies what do you intend to do then?"

"Then I shall take my Doctor's degree," said the young man.

"And then?" asked St. Filippo Neri again.

"And then?" continued the youth. I shall have a number of difficult cases to manage and I shall catch people's notice, by my zeal, my learning, my astuteness, and gain a great reputation.

"And then?" repeated the holy man.

"And then," added the young lawyer "then I shall live comfortably and honorably in health and dignity, and shall be able to look forward to a happy old age."

"Oh, was not this all to 'look at things'?" said St. Filippo.

"But the holy man had not done. Again he asked, 'And then?'"

"And then," said the youth with faltering voice—"and then—I shall die."

Here St. Filippo Neri again lifted up his voice, and solemnly said, "And then?"

"This last 'and then' was brought home by God's Spirit to the young man's heart. From that time he ceased to look at things. He began to feel the power of things unseen.

Invited a nice young man to tea, set him a laughing every five minutes during the evening, let him have six kisses, and you'll be his wife after twenty similar operations. Widows receipt.

THE SHILOH PRISONERS IN MONTGOMERY JAIL.

AIR—"HAPPY LAND OF CANADA."

Tis the custom of the times to put stories into rhyme.

And it won't do to be out of fashion: So to sing I'll make my wail, and curse Montgomery jail.

Which is far from our happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, ho! don't you hear the news?

The day of retribution is coming: See how you'll howl at Shiloh and Montgomery jail.

Which is far from our happy land of Canada.

We were taken at Shiloh, by Beauregard & Co.

'Cause the long eared U. S. Grant was coming: But next day General Buell upset their fish of gold.

And sent them kicking from our happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.

We have soon to get bail, though we linger here in jail.

Where rations meat and insults are our fate: But we're fatted calf at home bleating for our safe return.

We'll yet feast in our happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.

Measles, Rolets, 'pon my soul you had better be polite.

As our quarrels at your town will soon be bursting: Like the laddy well behave, and from you take French leave.

And skedaddle for our happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.

If two greys or buffenuts dust out ten blue ones, I should like very well to know the reason.

Why it takes old men, cannon, and black balls to impose.

Unarmed Yankees in their happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.

Necessity is the Mother but the Yankee is the Father.

Of that friend to the needy, called Invention: For with clay from our yard, and roots from the ground.

We drove Yankee from our happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.

The speech in wonder stare at our pipes and Asat old beads and trinkets did the Indians.

Though they purchase not with gold we get paper rags untold.

Which is money in their happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.

They say they're not afraid of Uncle Sam's blockade.

'Cause there's nothing more to lose, in the war: Their rivers are so blocked, their foraging trains are stopped.

They pay for manna in their happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.

Uncle Sam with Simpson's hands will burst their walling bands.

For reason's nearly through with its sting: Jeff Davis with his lust in Treason's sea is lost.

He can't govern our happy land of Canada.

Cos—Ho! boys, &c.
